In her diary, Anne Frank discussed her view of the seasonally changing tree. In honor of her, we have designed our Anne plan to maximize the view, we feel would be suitable for Anne herself. The layout in this ready-to-be-built plan is maximized for views and entertaining. Though it's not our largest plan, it is incredibly well suited for entertaining with an 'open concept'. This house gets all the upscale treatments such as raised ceilings in the owners' suite and great room, and a workspace in the garage. This flexible home can be a two-bedroom with a study or three-bedroom plan.
