ocated in Mesa Del Sol in Albuquerque, the Chardonnay floor plan makes a lovely first impression, with exterior cultured stone adding texture and character to the front of the home and an optional porch expansion giving you a perfect spot to sip your morning coffee. Inside, an 8′ slider and 8′ front and interior doors keep every room feeling open and full of light, while fresh air ventilation and smart home features quietly keep things comfortable behind the scenes.

The kitchen is a bright, welcoming place to cook and gather, with Linen quartz counters, Lancaster cabinetry in a soft White Icing finish, 2″ shaker crown molding, and 42″ upper cabinets that give you plenty of room for everything. A stainless appliance package with a gas range makes everyday meals easy. The baths feel clean and calm, with satin silver and Portrait White tile, adult-height quartz vanities, brushed nickel fixtures, and comfort-height commodes. Handy utility cabinets over the washer and dryer keep laundry day organized, and with extra USB outlets, overhead garage storage, and an EV charger prewire, the Chardonnay is a comfortable, thoughtfully finished home in one of Albuquerque’s most exciting communities.
