Located in Scottish Isle in Rio Rancho, the Maya floor plan feels airy and open from the moment you walk in, with a vaulted ceiling that adds height and drama to the living space. A skylight in the guest bath brings in soft natural light, while an 8′ slider and 8′ front and interior doors make every room feel bright and welcoming.

The kitchen is a great place to cook and connect, with Citrine quartz counters, Group 1 cabinetry with 2″ crown molding and 42″ uppers for plenty of storage, and a stainless appliance package with a gas range for easy everyday meals. The baths are calm and polished, with satin silver tile, a 48″ frameless shower door, adult-height quartz vanities, and comfort-height commodes. Brushed nickel hardware and fixtures carry the look through the home, and handy utility cabinets over the washer and dryer keep laundry day organized. Add in extra USB outlets, overhead garage storage, and an EV charger prewire, and the Maya is a comfortable, thoughtfully finished home in one of Rio Rancho’s most inviting communities.
